Lemon Tariff Reduction Is Hit By Bureau; Roy Southwick Issues Statement On Matter

California's congressional delegation has been asked to exert every possible influence to prevent the State department from reducing tariff on lemons, lemon oil and citrus peels.

Roy Southwick, Porterville, chairman of the citrus section sub-tropical fruits department of the Tulare County Farm Bureau, states that Ray B. Wiser, California Farm Bureau Federation president, has told California senators and representatives in Washington that:

1. The American lemon industry for many years has maintained an adequate production for domestic needs.

2. To prevent the excess production, normally averaging 32-27 per cent, from disastrously affecting market price, the industry instituted a marketing agreement many years ago under the authority of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1937, whereby the surplus is diverted into by-products.

3. In addition, the lemon industry resorts to an exceptional merchandising and advertising program, totaling an annual expenditure of about one million dollars.

4. Reduction of tariffs would result in larger imports of lemons, would jeopardize the continued operation of the industry's programs and would add to the difficulties of diverting surpluses into by-products.

TOO MUCH WATER, CULTIVATION CAUSES TROUBLE IN OLD CITRUS GROVES OF COUNTY SAYS MEITH

By H. C. MEITH

Probably 70 per cent of the troubles encountered in old citrus orchards in Tulare county can be traced to too much water or too much cultivation or a combination of both.

Over watering of citrus trees always results in root damage which becomes progressively worse in time. The one way to overcome some of this damage is to dry out the soil occasionally to stimulate new root development. The difficulty with bearing trees is in finding a time of year when the soil can be allowed to dry more than usual without hurting fruit size.

It is possible to improve this condition by watching soil moisture conditions in the spring. For instance, at this time of the year trees are not using nearly as much water as they will in July and August. Consequently there is no need to put the trees on a full irrigation schedule until later in the year.

The soil on the north and east sides of orange trees will dry out very slowly and because drying is beneficial the tree should be allowed to use the moisture in the soil before more is applied.

One of the best ways to make sure that the tree has adequate water while still drying out part of the soil is to irrigate only in the furrow on the south or west side of the tree for the first and second irrigation. As the irrigation season progresses to a time where the trees use more and more moisture, much good can be done for water damaged trees by irrigating alternate middles.

Others attending the tour were: Dickie Wilson, Diana Darr, Mitzie Sanders, Nancy Gray, Elmer Bratcher, Jimmie Bratcher and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mortenson, Chester Gilbert, Mrs. Oscar Stevens, Mr. DeGrade and Mrs. J. D. Overstreet.

DUCOR 4-H FIELD DAY

A social time and games for club members is planned for the afternoon.

Projects of members were visited last Sunday on a project tour of the Vandalia 4-H club, with beef, poultry, rabbit, pig and horse projects shown.

In addition, club members visited two home furnishing projects.

HIGH SCHOOL BOND VOTE PLANS MADE

Tentative plans to present a $1,420,000 bond issue to the people of the Porterville union high school district was reached last night when high school board members, advisory committee members and county officials met at the school for final consideration of school expansion problems that have been discussed pro and con for the past year.

Informally, County Counsel Ralph Nickerson was instructed by board members to prepare the necessary resolution providing for a bond election about June 1. The board is expected to consider this resolution next week.

Under the proposed plan, the following improvements would be made at the existing high school plant: Home economic building, $125,000; agricultural shop, $100,000; gymnasium, $300,000; four class rooms, $60,000; bus sheds, $40,000; music classrooms, $50,000; electrical plant, $40,000; stadium, $50,000 and improving of existing buildings and remodeling shop buildings, $100,000.

In addition, Porterville college would be moved to a separate campus, with the following construction: 12 classrooms and administration unit, $180,000; all purpose building, $150,000; shop, $125,000; land, $50,000 and agricultural development, $50,000.

These are approximate figures that have been worked out by the school administration. Bonds, if voted, would be for a 16-year period and would require a 40 cent tax rate.

Martin Dedication

Approximately 300 persons attended the opening and the dedication of the recently completed $60,000 Martin Memorial building at Springville TB sanatorium, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martin from San Raphael, California, were present at the opening of the building which Mr. Martin and Dr. W. A. Winn have planned for during the past 12 years. The building is named after Mr. Martin's father, G. J. Martin, a pioneer of the Porterville area.

The building will be used for the education and rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients at the Sanatorium and is one of the finest rehabilitation units on the West Coast.

Potato Meeting

Discussion of a proposed federal marketing agreement and order program on which a referendum vote will be conducted April 28 will be heard at a meeting of growers next Wednesday evening, April 26, in the Poplar Grange hall at Poplar.

Mr. Morris Stuhaan

gives his reasons for buying a used tractor. Morris, successful young Tulare rancher, farms 800 acres of cotton, grain, alfalfa and hay with a fleet of eight tractors.

Recently he bought a used Caterpillar D4 tractor — completely overhauled — from Treanor's. He says, "I'll never buy anything but a used tractor as long as I can get it from a good reliable dealer — let someone else take the first depreciation on it."

Now THERE'S a point to think over. Up and coming farmers like Morris know what they're doing . . . look into the possibilities of fitting a good used tractor into your farming operations.

L. J. Singleton Heads Association Of Certified Seed Growers In County

L. J. Singleton, Orange Cove, has been elected president of a newly formed Certified Seed Growers association for Tulare county, with Ralph Terry, Woodville district, vice president; Julius Damann, Strathmore, secretary-treasurer and Francis Muller, Ducor and Albert Nagel, Tulare, directors.

Object of the association will be to devise means for more efficient handling, advertising and marketing of certified seed. At the present time, 31 growers have 1750 acres in production of certified seed for grains, range grasses, alfalfa and Sudan grass.

Demand for certified seed has increased considerably in Tulare county during the past few years, according to Ralph Worrell, farm advisor, with continued increased demand and increased production indicated.

Potato Program Adoption Is Recommended

The U. S. department of agriculture announced recently a decision recommending adoption of a Federal marketing agreement and order to regulate the handling of California potatoes. The program, which has been proposed by growers to stabilize the marketing of the crop, would cover all potatoes grown in California (except Modoc and Siskiyou counties which are included in another marketing agreement and order.)

The marketing agreement and order would authorize regulation by grade and size for any or all varieties of table stock or seed, by pack, for any or all portions of the marketing season, and during any period. The marketing committees also could recommend packing holidays of not to exceed 5 days in any one month.

The committees also may recommend special treatment of shipped purposes so that all outlets not competitive with the table stock market may be used to the fullest advantage. Minimum standards of quality and maturity may be established at any time.

This action will be followed by a decision of the secretary of agriculture which, if favorable, will be followed by a referendum among producers in the production area. The proposed order must be favored by at least two-thirds of the voters participating, by number or volume of production, before it can be made effective, and the agreement must be signed by handlers representing at least 50 per cent of the volume covered by the agreement.

Three Provisions For Allotment Of Cotton Acreages

New cotton legislation, recently passed by Congress, provides for minimum 1950 acreage allotments based on one of three provisions, L. D. Flory, chairman of the PMA Tulare county committee, said this week.

The revised allotments are based on the larger of (1) 65 per cent of the average acreage planted to cotton (or devoted to war crops in place of cotton) in 1946, 1947 and 1948; (2) 45 per cent of the highest acreage planted to cotton on the farm during any one of the three years; but (3) not more than 40 per cent of the 1949 acreage which was tilled on the farm or in regular rotation.

Any owner or operator of a cotton farm in Tulare county who believes he is entitled to an acreage increase and wants to be considered by the county committee for possible allotment adjustment under the legislation must file an application not later than Today.

Application forms may be obtained from the PMA County office at 121 East Center street, Visalia.

PORTERVILLE ENTERPRISE

November 13, 1891

The entertainment given at the Porterville school by its pupils was pronounced a success and is one of the best things which could possibly be gotten up, as it teaches children to have confidence in themselves before an audience. It is Mr. Turner, the principal's idea, to have the same kind of entertainment every two months.

Some of those on the program were: Vira Hardeman, Lizzie Montgomery, Hallie Whitlock, Pearl McDougall, Oscar Van Deusen, Lou E. Schultz, Maud Manner, John and Emma Gardner, May Maddux, Harry Owen, Ellen Adams, Jessie Witt, Effie Bearrs, Blanche Redd, Nellie Wallace, Robert Wilson, Ora Avery, Laura Kinkaed, Hattie Owens and Anna Ducommun.

(From the San Jose Mercury, a reprint in the Enterprise) M. J. O'Clancey, who was formerly a reporter on the Mercury and is well known in this city, and who for some years past has been editor and proprietor of the Porterville Enterprise, has now sold his interest in that paper to the Lumley Brothers.

Under the new management, the Enterprise will no doubt flourish and do good work for Porterville, but the press of the state will miss the unique editorials that O'Clancey wrote and we will be glad to hear from him when he starts up again.

Nesbitt's horse bolted with the milk cart down main street, Monday last, but came to a halt back of the Pioneer hotel, with the exception of the loss of a few cans of milk, no damage was done.

The Fire company has their posters stuck up everywhere informing the public of their intention to give a ball Thanksgiving night. They always give good dances.

There was a jolly dance at Eureka hall, Woodville, Friday night, last. Some 45 couples were present and dancing was kept up until after daybreak.

Henry Ford sold five acres in the west field of the Pioneer Land company's land to P. P. Putnam, last week, for $600.

The first payment of $800 was paid on the new Catholic church for Porterville by the committee last Tuesday.

Anton Konda has sowed 300 acres to grain on his place at Deer Creek.

J. J. Mitchell has gone to Cholame, San Louis Obispo county, to put in a crop of grain.

Postmaster C. C. Belknap returned to town, Tuesday morning but not alone, as, during his absence, he had become irrevocably entangled in the nuptial knot and brought his wife with him. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Belknap a happy and bright future.

L. L. Gill's horse, attached to his delivery wagon, ran away on Oak street, yesterday, and dashed into the electric light post on the corner of Oak and Main streets.

The Ladies Parsonage society of the M. E. Church, South, will give a grand Thanksgiving dinner the 26th inst., at Woodville. The presiding elder, Rev. A. L. Hunsaker, will preach the sermon.

Mrs. Burford, of Tipton, was visiting friends in Plano and Porterville this week.

The orange trees in the Plano vicinity are bending low under the weight of fruit. Even the young trees are loaded with oranges of unusual size.

The smithy at Springville, M. L. Cramer, is busy from early morn until late evenings mending wagons.

B. H. Klein and son, Tom, have returned from the Zimmerman place on White River, where they have been working on a canal.

Miss Della Slinkard has been visiting her friends and relatives in Plano and Porterville.

The old school house at Frazier has been moved to the place of John Renz, where it will be used for a slaughter house during the turkey picking season.

Jim Hubbs is baling hay at the Charles McCutcheon place.

Gooden and Preston will have the Springville school house ready for use in two more weeks.

George Cole is promising plenty of good eating for the Sportsmen's banquet in Porterville April 24

Some high powered, free entertainment is being lined up by Charles Haener for the third annual Tulare County Junior Livestock Show and Community fair, May 25 through 28.

Keep Foods Refrigerated In Order To Avoid Sickness Is Warning Of Health Department

Two cases of "food poisoning" resulting from use of food that was not kept refrigerated have been investigated by the Tulare County Health department, leading to the warning that with warm weather coming on, precaution should be taken with all foods.

Ralph Gunderson, chief, division of sanitation, suggests that these rules be followed:

1. Do not prepare more food than will be eaten at one meal.
2. Keep perishable foods below 50 degrees F. until they are prepared for serving (This is usually the temperature maintained in your refrigerator.)

3. Do not allow foods such as meats, pasteries, or cream products to remain exposed to outdoor temperatures for long periods of time; such as leaving perishable foods in a car all day.

Public eating places are required by city and county ordinances to keep perishable foods at temperatures of 140 degrees, F., or more, or below 50 degrees, F.

Greater Cotton Acreage Is Possibility

L. D. Flory, chairman of the Tulare County P M A committee states that owners and operators of cotton farms having a Group I (Old Cotton Farm) allotment have the privilege of requesting additional allotment under the March 31st amendment of the Agricultural Adjustment act of 1938. Requests must be made in writing on special forms at the P M A office at 121 East Center street, Visalia, California.

Mr. Flory emphasized that the most important part of the amendment, in respect to Tulare county farmers, is the limitation of increases to forty per cent of the cropland on each farm. Since the county factor which was used to determine the present allotment was 43.56% of the cropland, after certain deductions for supported crops and non-irrigated land, only those farms will benefit which had a reduction of "tillable acres" under the old regulations.

"Increased acreage granted under this allotment will not count in future years as cotton "history" in determining allotments for that farm, Mr. Flory said.

Sulfur Grapes When Shoots Are 6-8 Inches Long

By FRED JENSEN
Farm Advisor

The first sulfurizing for grape mildew should be applied when the shoots are 6 to 8 inches long. Five to seven pounds of sulfur are sufficient for adequate control.

Since the control of mildew is based on the prevention of the development of the disease it is essential that a layer of sulfur be on the vines before mildew is likely to start growth in the spring. This first sulfurizing should be applied irrespective of temperature and repeated after heavy rains.

Where the overwhelming population of leafhoppers is very high a 5 per cent DDT 50 per cent sulfur dust may be applied at the rate of 15 pounds per acre. Normally DDT is not applied in the first sulfurizing.

ENDORSED

Major principals of the proposed eling peach marketing order have been endorsed by the California Farm Bureau Federation. The proposed order includes a green fruit diversion and surplus stabilization fund operation, with continuation of trade promotion and quality control program.

PROGRAMS

Through the office of the farm advisor in Tulare county, two radio programs will be presented over station KNGS - Tulare County Farm Weew in Review, Saturday, 12 - 12:15 and a 4-H club program, Saturday, 2 - 2:30 P. M.

Don't forget the Southern Tulare County Sportsmen's association banquet, April 24.

Two thousand man days were spent by Southern Tulare County sportsmen planting fish last year.

The Show Goes On At Barn Theater In Spite Of Injury To Member Of Cast; "My Sister Eileen" Is Entertaining

The "show must go on spirit" invaded Porterville's Barn theatre Saturday evening when Elmer Carr, playing the role of The Wreck in "My Sister Eileen," left entrance and carry on through the production.

During the afternoon, Mr. Carr had suffered a serious injury when a harrow caught on the wheel of his tractor, throwing the harrow onto the tractor, with one of the harrow teeth going through Mr. Carr's left cheek.

Merely a sidlight on a show that was entertaining and, for the most part, well enough done, but which, in the Saturday night performance we couldn't help but feel, was a little on the down side. (Maybe the audience had something to do with that. The intangible item known as audience participation can often make a show sparkle, or just leave as a good show.)

The old timers in the Eileen cast - Kaye Holmes, Mac Williams, Ben Cole, were hardly up to their best, as we have seen them, although we must add, they still did a good job.

Ann Lumsden, as Eileen, - good; Mac Halliday as Jensen - good; David Weaver as Frank Lippen-cott - overplayed without being funny enough to justify it; Elmore Salisbury as Walter Sherwood - a little more acting, please; Sulphur; Ann B. Davis as Violet Sherwood - better than good.

In supporting roles were: Larry Lasure, Frank Long, Louis Hunt, Charles Scott, Kit Tewksbury, Wilma Corbin, Eugene Burmeister, Vona Johnson, Henry Johnson, Gabriel Gomez, Mariano Balangue, Vincent Pasion, Henry Balangue, Daniel Martinez, Neil Selman, Ethel Scott, Jake Rankin, Mary Emily Price, Jim Cox and Olita Lasure.

"My Sister Eileen" has some excellent lines and its unusual setting in a Greenwich Village basement "studio" provides an opportunity for a number of sideline laughs.

We'll lay even money you'll enjoy the show. It's running this week - end, you know.

George Cole is promising plenty of good eating for the Sportsment's banquet in Porterville April 24.

Shopping ... with Betty

By Betty Scott

Cure for snoring! Man got his "high forehead" sunburned early this week; his wife compressed it with tea when he went to bed ... Lo! he snored not! First silent sleep she's ever known him to have. Last I saw she was working on a combination of wash-cloth, tea leaves, and shower-cap. A kind of nightly poultice. A full head of hair would save time ... just soak it in tea, don the shower cap and regain your popularity!

You've probably noticed by now that we are just finishing off a double week. This has been library and dough-nut weeks. Happiest of coincidences ... they are two of my favorite indulgences. For many of you, an even better week is coming ... April 29 to May 6 will be National Baby Week as well as National Boys and Girls Week. Watch for the special event of that week sponsored jointly by JEFF EDWARDS PHOTOGRAPHY STUDIO and Famous Dept. Store. I made dough-nuts for the librarians this week; but Jeff and Famous will not eat your young-uns at their party ... watch for it!

I invented a fine idea for the business men and women's service clubs. They're always raising money for charity. Let each member take a turn at naming a person who owes him money; let the club pay the member and send a receipt to the debtor. Aid will be given needy business men and women who can't collect bills, aid will be given needy customers who can't meet the bills and charity will be done to all! Lands! It'd be fun to do it to some people who have plenty of money but are just too lazy or selfish to pay their bills!! Even that'd probably not shame 'em, though!

These heavenly days in the yard are extra exciting with gopher hunting in full swing ... I started to say "we've" caught six. Actually, we've cheered while our gopher-trapping dead-eye friend has caught six in our yard! Catching gophers is an art or a gift or skill that only a few possess. I herewith pay them homage and bow deeply in respect. Got the gophers on the run then discovered another garden woe. The cushions and canvass on the yard chairs came out of hibernation with splits, tears, and assorted rents! What you took to be an animated mattress the other day was me lugging all the chair seats to A.B.C. TOP & AWNING WORKS, 1348 W. Olive. Mr. Dunn put them all back into service ... quickly, economically, and attractively. Ask him about new, cool car seat covers too.

Signs of the times: Black-birds in droves on your lawn or plants mean trouble; they are eating bugs and larvae or cut worms! Offer thanks to the black-birds and investigate immediately! We didn't catch on in time last year nearly lost a new lawn ... Man up Reedley-way did loose a peach crop this year! Other signs: Air saturated with orange blossoms perfume heralds weddings. For the bride you'll find lovely linen gifts at BREY'S BOOK SHELF, 600 N. "D" Street. Luncheon sets, bridge sets, place mats, in beautiful organdies and linens ... in colors and dainty whites. Tell the bride, by the way, that Marie has a book she'd like to lend to her ... free. It's "Wedding Etiquette, Complete", by Bentley. Perfect wedding gifts and announcements and "fixin's" at Brey's.

In the meanwhile ... Yippee! With a whoop and holler we're off on the rodeo season! For awhile, all of us jeans addicts will be in style. The rest of the year we're slovenly ... now we're in costume! Too bad the season's so short! Are you dudes readied up? Kerchief? Hat? Boots? ... Boots! That reminds me, found out today that CARROLL'S SHOE SHOP at Division and Putnam refinishes gold and silver shoes and saddles! Better take in your summer shoes for an over-haul, while you're booting and gilding!

My glib tongue has often embarrassed me; for once was thankful to be unembarrassed by it. To the attractive young woman who exclaimed with compassion "How many do you have to cook for?" when she saw me buying the whole front leg of the cow ... My apologies for ignoring the question and glibly explaining how many meal and dishes will come from it. Your eyes didn't deceive you, those two other meat packages were mine too! Now we're not eye to eye ... I cook for three! That's no worse, however, than the recipes in the COW BELLES cookbook. That is the best meat and such cook book I've ever seen! Call Evelyn Farnsworth, White River 4-F-2, learn how to cook all of the beast but the hide and horns ... honest, even the "tallor" for soap!

Time to repeat ... I'm no authority ... I'm just a plain farm woman who knows lots of authorities and how to get the straight dope. If I sound learned, it's just an irrespressible curiosity satisfied and bubbling over. Remember, please, that I personally guarantee all that I advertise. But workers are human and machines not gods ... accidents can slip by undetected if you fail to report them. Example: Newell Smith will be disgusted if you ever find PROCTOR'S CLEANERS in error and fail to report it. Proctor's takes pride in its reputation of dependability.

Letter arrived since the opening hint. I quote in part: "I tried that there walnut juice and alum on my eyebrows ... I've always had bright red eyebrows, and Scott, no woman with bright red eyebrows over butter-milk blue eyes can put much lure on the maler sex. So, thinks I, some real black eyebrows would give me a right sultry look. And, Scott, that's what I am inside—sultry. Did I have black as jet eyebrows? I did not. Neither did I have my old red eyebrows ... If you think no eyebrows at all on top of butter-milk blue eyes gives a female a come-hither look, ... you'd best check. I don't aim to have the law on you ... Well, thank heaven! If your hair is still attached maybe you'd better call 107-W, FLORENCE PEAK'S BEAUTY SALON and just forget the tea on the head!

This figure represents a 14.1 per cent increase over the peak figure a year earlier. The percentage is even higher in western states.

Good Fishing Indicated For Season Opening

Good fishing, for the opening of trout season, April 29, is indicated in a report released this week by Game Warden Ross Welch through the Porterville chamber of commerce.

Mr. Welch states that all streams should be low and clear, with bait fishing probably most popular but with conditions to also be suitable for good fly fishermen.

On Tule River, best fishing should be on the lower levels, down as low as Springville; the North Fork of the Tule should also provide some good catches. South fork of Tule will be closed inside the Indian reservation.

Deer Creek should be good in the vicinity of California Hot Springs, and Tyler creek and Nigger Rube creek should also produce some good trout. Upper Kern river and the back country will not be readily accessible until the first of June; fishing should be good on the lower Kern around Kernville and Fairview.

Yokohl History

History of the Yokohl valley will be the theme of a meeting of the Tulare County Historical society to be held Sunday afternoon, April 23, at "Anderson Spring," east of the Gill ranch headquarters, east of Exeter.

Robert K. Simeral Blasts "Do Nothing" Policy Of Incumbent As Assembly Race In Tulare-Kings District Gets Under Way

Robert K. Simeral, 33, Pixley business man, this week opened his campaign for California assemblyman from the 36th district by striking out at what he termed the "do nothing" policy of Incumbent Harlan Hagan, Hanford attorney, and called for a "realistic evaluation" of the central San Joaquin valley problems and an honest effort to do something about solving them.

Mr. Simeral, a lifelong resident of Tulare county, stated that Mr. Hagan's voting record "does not jibe with his publicity releases."

"Unemployment, oppressive rail freight rates, indifferent rail and air transportation," said Mr. Simeral, "are nothing new to this area. We've had them for a long time. But the incumbent did nothing to rectify these conditions."

"During the closing days of the recent legislative session," Mr. Simeral continued, "he made newspaper headlines blasting these conditions. But you'll find nothing in the record to show he introduced any affirmative legislation to remedy these conditions."

In stating his position on problems of the 36th district, that includes Tulare and Kings counties, Mr. Simeral said that the migrant problems must be solved on the state level, with valley legislators leading the move.

Mr. Simeral said, also, "I am opposed to the spectacle of lobbyists, not only running the state of California, but bragging publicly, and getting away with it."

Concerning welfare problems, Mr. Simeral said that the state must lead the way in lightening the financial burden now falling on agricultural counties; he said he favors good roads, particularly "farm to market" road improvement in the rural areas.

On education, Mr. Simeral said, "As the father of three youngsters soon to be in school, I have a personal stake in the educational welfare of the children of this area. They are entitled to adequate classrooms and competent instructors. I shall work unceasingly to this end."

Mr. Simeral is a World War II veteran, enlisting in the air force as a private and leaving the force as a Lt. Colonel. He flew 24 combat missions over France and Germany, with the 8th Air force.

M. G. MOORE CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CLERK

Officially announcing this week as a candidate for the office of Tulare county clerk is M. G. Moore, Visalia, who, for the past 11 years has been engaged in the farm equipment business there.

Mr. Moore, who is 38 years old, has a wife and two children, was educated as a mechanical engineer at Fresno State college and Oakland Polytechnic. He was born in Fresno.

Both he and Mrs. Moore are prominent in Visalia musical circles and Mr. Moore is a member of the Masons, Elks, and Kiwanis club and was chairman of the Visalia selective service board for four years.

ART GRISWOLD HEADS RANGE IMPROVEMENT

Art Griswold, Springville, has been elected chairman of the Tulare County Range Improvement committee for the 1950 year. Other officers are: John Britten, Three Rivers, vice chairman and Ralph Worrell, Visalia secretary.

Work planned for the year includes an increased amount of range improvement experiments, in cooperation with the agricultural extension service; reseeding of range lands; controlled burning of brush to stimulate growth of feed; use of fertilizers on range plants and further experiments in methods of brush control.

Range Field Day

The Arthur Brown Hereford ranch near Wilton, Sacramento county, is the location of the annual Range Field Day of the University of California college of agriculture, to be held Saturday, May 20.

The field day will be held the day after the Annual Agronomy Field day on the college of agriculture campus at Davis.

Two thousand man hours were spent by Southern Tulare County Sportsmen's association members last year planting fish.

We Only Heard

By BILL RODGERS

TO ROLLA BISHOP—We were glad to hear, from completely reliable sources that you are now importing expensive feeds from throughout the United States in an effort to get your Poland Chinas ready for competition with The Farm Tribune Polands during the third annual Tulare County Junior Livestock Show and community fair, May 25 through 28, at the Rocky Hill arena. We say we were glad to hear this, because we realize you can't afford to overlook any bet if you intend to put your hogs in the same ring with ours. . . . And we might add that if you can think of any other ways of improving the very poor chances of those Monache hogs, we advise you to do it. . . . And you had better start preparing them for the shock. We don't want them to collapse when they see the competition they are up against. Or you either.

ALLAN COATES, when he takes time off from his duties as, a director of the Junior fair, is considering establishing an arguing club. As head man in charge of operations, he would be available to argue any side of any question at anytime, for a small fee, of course. . . . But already he is running into trouble. The local coffee counter cartel maintains he is invading their exclusive field, and warn him to watch his step.

SPEAKING OF the fair, Allan Basye is working up an excellent flower show. . . . Bob Bennett has the citrus exhibit moving along. . . . Chet Gilbert says the butterfat contest and the Tulare County Jersey Cattle club show will be something indeed. . . . Charles Haener is lining up some good talent for free entertainment during the fair—that's right, we said free. . . . 4-H members and Future Farmers throughout the Porterville, Strathmore and Lindsay high school districts are grooming some fine livestock for show and for the annual Junior sale (your chance to get some of the BEST locker meat) and Louie Stephan is working up a fine program for the annual Junior Horse show.

Livestock Insurance

Livestock breeders who show stock at the third annual Tulare County Junior Livestock Show and Community fair May 25 through 28 at the Rocky Hill arena, Porterville, will have an opportunity to insure their stock if they desire to do so.

Robert A. Hockett, of R. W. Rowan and Co., general agents for Hartford Livestock insurance, San Francisco, will be on hand the night prior to opening of the fair and during the first day of the fair to handle any policies desired. He is being brought to Porterville at request of the Lumley-Reed Insurance agency.

PASTURE GOOD

Although the April 1 pasture and range feed report of the California Crop and Livestock Reporting service rates California at only 77 per cent of normal, the season appears to be the best since 1945.

Sermon In Miniature

"The Porterville Nobody Knows"
By The Rev. Willis L. Goldsmith
First Congregational Church

There is the town of Porterville that is quite generally known. People who live elsewhere, even far away, know about it, and my impression is that it is becoming better and more favorably known. It is being put on the map in a variety of ways, most of which are to its credit, I believe, however there is another Porterville, which nobody knows, but God, and He is not publicizing it. At least not now. The day is coming when the truth about it will be proclaimed from the house-tops. There is nothing hidden or covered up that shall not be revealed. And this shall come to pass without any snooping. For truth will out. The seed that is sown in the dark will bear fruit in the light. The good that is done in secret will be rewarded openly, the evil likewise. There is a Porterville that nobody knows, how good and how bad it is. The census-takers are expected to find out a great deal, yes, more than ever before, but will never find out, nobody will ever tell them the whole truth and nothing but the truth. That God knows and He only. "Lord, have mercy upon us."

HOSPITAL VOTE

Thursday, June 15, was set this week by directors of the Sierra View Hospital district as date for vote on a $325,000 bond issue to cover the district's share, approximately one-third, of cost of a proposed district hospital. Action of the board was unanimous.

Board members stated that if the bond issue carries, bonds will not be sold to become a lien on taxpayers of the district, until state and federal financial aid to cover the two-thirds balance is obtained.

Indications are that this aid will eventually be secured, however, just when is not known.

Dwarf Disease Resistant Alfalfa Will Be Shown

A new alfalfa variety, resistant to dwarf disease, will be on display at the Annual Agronomy Field day, which will be held on the Davis campus of the California college of agriculture, May 19.

Farm Advisor Ralph Worrell states that the new variety, California Common 49, has been developed at the college of agriculture to meet California conditions.

"Penny Wise . . . Pound Foolish . . ."

"Any reduction in the Federal budget's appropriation for the work in insect quarantine and investigation with special respect to the Oriental Fruit Fly and other fruit pests, is penny-wise and pound-foolish legislation."

So declared Roy R. McLain, Chairman, National Fruits and Vegetables Department of American Farm Bureau Federation and State Delegate of the Tulare County Farm Bureau, as he called attention this week to the need for maintaining an adequate appropriation to protect both producers and consumers of fruits and vegetables.

CITRUS THRIP

Farm Advisor William Gilfillan states that citrus growers should distinguish between two types of thrips at this season of the year.

Flower thrip, amber yellow in color, are usually present in large numbers, but are harmless; citrus thrip, that scar the young citrus fruit, are yellow-orange in color and are somewhat smaller than the flower thrip.

It is intended that all returns shall mean income to Tulare county and thus include the cost of picking, hauling, packing and otherwise preparing for delivery at the point of packing."

Figures this year are generally below 1948, when the grand total ran $184,139,541.

Some high powered, free entertainment is being lined up by Charles Haener for the third annual Tulare County Junior Livestock Show and Community fair, May 25 through 28.
